AT WEST POINT

Be Part of West Point's History

THE THAYER HOTEL is a national historic landmark that has hosted five US Presidents and countless world leaders and decision makers. The Thayer Hotel hosts executive meetings and conferences, offering enterprises the opportunity to experience the dynamic leadership instruction of West Point's top educators, supplemented by world-famous honorarium speakers.

The Thayer Hotel is currently in the process of extensive internal and external renovations. These upgrades are bringing this historic property into the modern world of high-tech conference-capabilities, while restoring the hotel's old-world grandeur and inspirational beauty. The Thayer Hotel is unveiling new elaborate meeting and conference rooms; inspirational hallways with displays selected by the Academy's Superintendent, the West Point Association of Graduates, The Medal of Honor Society, and The West Point Museum; and meticulously renovated dining areas and guest rooms.

Each new guest room will be dedicated to a distinguished graduate of West Point. Each room's décor will reflect the accomplishments of an individual who has made significant contributions to the nation and the world. These rooms will embrace occupants with an abundance of luxury, high-tech convenience, and reflective inspiration. West Point has produced US Presidents, foreign heads of state, warrior leaders, renowned astronauts, and Captains of Industry. Only the most accomplished and distinguished will have a room at The Thayer Hotel named and decorated in their honor. All chosen honorees, selected by committee, will become part of the storied hotel's history. Their names and accomplishments will be listed as part of a dedication display in the lobby. Their stories will be told in perpetuity on the Thayer History Channel, running alternating videos on each individual's life and accomplishments. Every guest of the hotel will be offered an opportunity to take home a collector's video of the chosen honorees and will enjoy connecting with those who have had an impact on their country and the world.

These dedicated rooms will be seen and enjoyed by world leaders, dignitaries, Academy recruits, cadet parents, returning war heroes, active duty officers and enlisted troops, tourists, and business leaders. Decision makers in all aspects of world affairs, coming from every industry, will see and reflect on both the honorees and the listed sponsors of these rooms. Sponsors will have a special dedication area in both the individually selected rooms and the hotel lobby. The opportunity for industry sponsors to connect on a deep emotional level with key decision makers from every sector of the economy is extraordinary.

THE THAYER HOTEL ROOM DEDICATION TEAM LOOKS FORWARD TO FIELDING YOUR INQUIRIES INTO THIS EXCLUSIVE OPPORTUNITY. WE ARE HONORED TO BUILD AWARENESS OF WEST POINT'S MOST ACCOMPLISHED INDIVIDUALS, BENEFITTING THE FUTURE AND CELEBRATING THE PAST.
