U.S. Army General Douglas MacArthur, who graduated from West Point in 1903, was one of the few individuals to achieve a five-star rank. General MacArthur graduated top of his class and by 1925, he was the Army's youngest general. He notably served in World War I, World War II, and the Korean War. Fun Fact: While MacArthur was a cadet at West Point, his mother stayed at The Thayer Hotel the entire time to make sure he stayed focused.
