

2023 SPRING TRENDS

Weddings in 2023 will take a step further in creating more dynamic ensembles featuring mismatched dresses with different styles, fabrics, and colors. The options are endless as spring offers warmer temperatures and colorful hues. With The Thayer Hotel's rich greeneries, each outfit will surely pop out in their own!

A signature tradition that sums up the 'Just Married' high: Petal toss in ceremonies! Set up a petal station at the entrance and get ready for a picture-perfect exit filled with a cloud of seasonal blooms. Coordinate with our preferred wedding planner, Events by Mary Grace, for thoughtful advice from choosing the right colors of the petals to executing the station itself! For execution, our preferred florist Lilys of the Valley would be happy to make your dream come true.

This season's whimsical vibe doesn't stop with floral arrangements and colorful gowns. Delight your guests until the end with the ultimate Venetian sweet surprise!

The Thayer Hotel offers Viennese displays with options such as Cannolis, Fresh Fruit Tarts, and Chocolate Truffles! Check out our wedding package.

The Hudson Valley embraces Spring with warmer weather, blossoming flowers and budding trees. It's when nature transforms from a winter wonderland to start a beautiful pastel garden on its own. Plan your Spring Wedding at the Thayer Hotel to embrace new beginnings with Hudson Valley's natural beauty!

Making flowers as part of the experience is one of the most sought out interactive stations for this season.

Like weddings, Spring flowers are symbols of a new start. Have Poppies Floral Cart or Miosotis Floral Cart, for your guests to make their own bouquets and let it be a unique wedding favor that symbolizes a new adventure they were part of!

Transform The Thayer Hotel back lawn into a whimsical garden ceremony by packing the aisle with overgrown floral arrangements! This trend elevates your entrance as if you're walking in a sea of greeneries with fresh lilacs and budding roses - a truly magical experience. Our talented vendors, Lilys of the Valley and Greenery Plus are all set to make your fairytale wedding like no other.

Champagne walls are everywhere and trendy for a reason - this concept serves both as a drink station and a chic backdrop for the 'gram! Make sure to work with a trusted rental company such as, Delivered Details, to incorporate this elaborate décor people will talk about days after your event.
